

Livo Loves Reading

Hello and welcome to February's edition of Livo Loves Reading

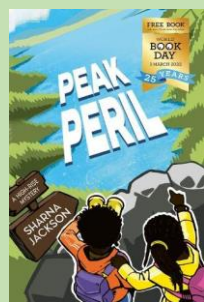

Hi everyone, in this month's newsletter we have some recommendations for books you can choose to buy with your Word Book Day tokens. See our new DISPLAY in the library!

BOY MISSING by Sophie McKenzie

From the Queen of teen thrillers and author of Girl, Missing, Boy, Missing is a fun, quick read that's packed with action! Cousins Ellen and Harlan have been forced to go on a family camping trip – the worst timing ever, because they're in a huge fight. So Ellen is happy when Harlan storms off into the woods, but her peace and quiet quickly turns to panic when he doesn't come back. Facing heart-stopping danger on the clifftops, will Ellen be able to find Harlan before it's too late?

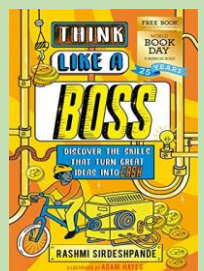

PEAK PERIL by Sharna Jackson

From the award-winning author of the High-Rise Mystery series, Peak Peril is a great mystery story which is fun to follow along and solve.

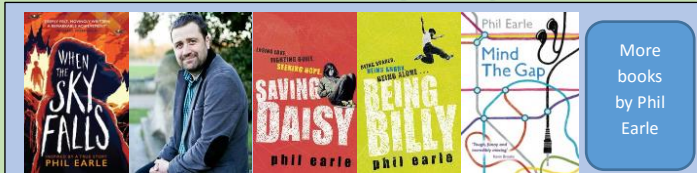

Nik and Norva are headed to the Peak District, for a school trip and a break from being the Tri's best detectives. But, a new mystery is never too far away...

THINK LIKE A BOSS by Rashmi Sirdeshpande

Ever thought making MONEY was just for adults? Or that BUSINESS was boring? And that INVENTING stuff was only for super clever people? THINK AGAIN! This book is bursting with BIG ideas for budding entrepreneurs. From understanding money and looking after it, to the details of setting up a business, making your BIG ideas a reality and using your cash for good.

BOOK OF THE MONTH – When the Sky Falls by Phil Earle

More books by Phil Earle

When the Sky Falls is an emotional and breath-taking read inspired by a true story. Set in London during the Blitz, this follows Joseph, a 12-year-old boy who has been sent from Yorkshire by his grandmother to live with Mrs F in London (even though most children were being sent "from" London at that time). Joseph struggles with his emotions and at first he is furious to be in London. But when he meets Adonis, a gorilla who lives in Mrs F's zoo, things begin to change. This book is perfect for children who want to learn more about WW2 – an amazing read!
